CARGOWISE EDI AND DBH LOGISTICS ANNOUNCE MARKETING AND DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT

BREMEN, SYDNEY: (June, 2007) — CargoWise edi, award winning provider of global enterprise class integrated forwarding and logistics software solutions, and dbh Logistics IT AG, Germany's leading solution provider for the Customs, Transportation and Logistics industry, today announced a comprehensive marketing and development agreement.

The agreement allows both companies to extend their products and reach and further enhances CargoWise edi's European coverage for its Freight Forwarding and Logistics solutions. Together, the integrated solutions of CargoWise edi and dbh Logistics IT AG will provide the end-to-end management of forwarding, customs brokerage, order management, transportation and contract warehousing from a single global source.

The agreement with dbh Logistics IT AG will include the joint development of European language Interfaces and European customs processing components built on CargoWise edi's award winning ediEnterprise global platform.

Integrated global and local visibility, control and the power to execute supply chain activities, provides a dramatic step forward in enabling global logistics providers and shippers to accelerate their time to delivery, minimize their costs and maintain control of the goods throughout the export/import process.

Richard White, Chief Executive Officer of CargoWise edi, commented, "This agreement is part of our strategy to expand our supply chain execution capabilities into leading trading communities around the world. With this agreement, we have strengthened ediEnterprise as a true global platform that will provide our 2,300 corporate customers and new customers with a global system."

Reimund Ott, Chief Executive Officer of dbh Logistics IT AG, stressed that the cooperation will provide the first truly global solution for all major logistics processes. "We have recently begun to increase our efforts in other European markets and this agreement allows us to proceed faster than we could have on our own," he said. dbh will not only supply customs brokerage software, but also fleet management solutions that can be connected with ediEnterprise.
